WAYNESVILLE TOWNSHIP HIGH SCHOOL

Waynesville, North Carolina

ALMA MATER

In a rose-tinted valley encircled by hills,
Resting deep in a land that is blest,
Where the warm golden sunlight brings concord and peace
Lies the school that our hearts all love best.

And amidst those green hills in that valley of gold,
Shall our praises to her ever rise,
Till the mountains and hill-sides her honors set forth
And re-echo her name to the skies.

CHORUS

Then hurrah for our colors, our flag, and our school,
Hurrah for our classmates so dear,
Hurrah for our teachers so kind and so true,
For the Board of Trustees give a cheer.

Dedication

LESLIE DAVIS

The 1951 Mountaineer is dedicated to the memory of our classmate, Leslie Davis, who met with a fatal accident during our second year in junior high school.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Davis of Waynesville and brother of Barbara Davis, now a majorette for the Military Band.

Our Administration is the pride of our school. Shown in the picture are Mrs. L. M. Richeson, Dean of Girls and Secretary to the Principle. She is the person who gives us our permits, listens to all our complaints, and gives us advice when we need it. M. H. Bowles, District Principle, is standing by her, probably checking over one of his numerous reports. And last we have our Principle, C. E. Weatherby, better known as "Coach". He is our coach and the man who gives us those discipline talks that always make you feel like a new person when you leave his office.

Instead of choosing just Valedictorian and Salutatorian the Senior Class of '51 voted to have six honor students — two chosen by the faculty, two by the students and two by their grades. We believe this will give a better representation of the whole class at graduation.

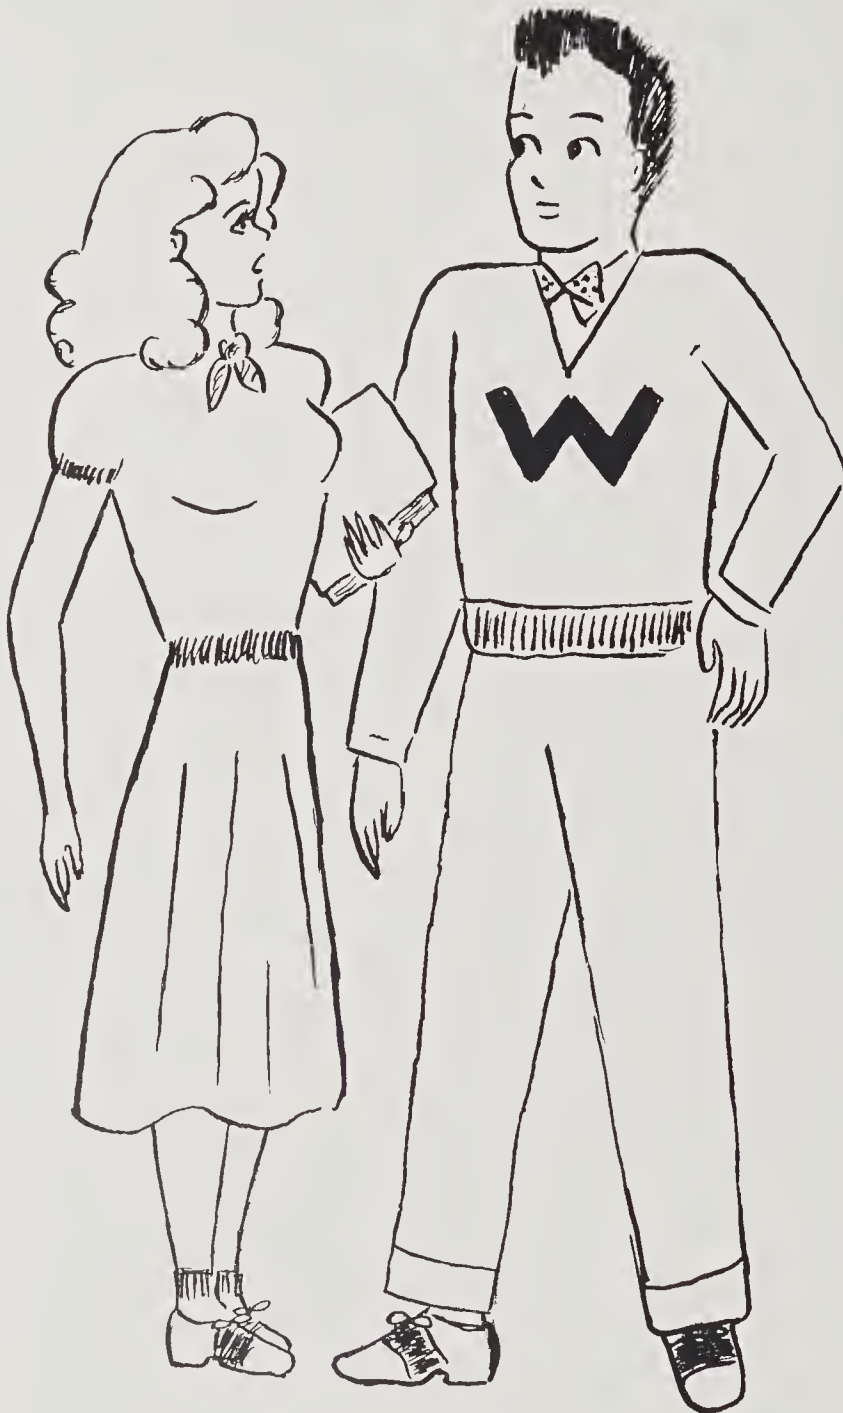

Dear Seniors:

The very best wishes of the entire faculty go with you as you leave high school and accept larger responsibilities. Your world is in a muddled state in every phase of human relationship. Many young people may fail to plan and refuse to strive because of the uncertainty of the future. We trust that you will not be overwhelmed but rather challenged by the complexities of life today. Planning ahead, striving toward a definite goal, exerting the necessary willpower to marshall all our talents are forces which will not be overcome even in this atomic age.

Last Will and Testament

We, the seniors of 1951, realizing that the members of our class are so unusual that their records can never be equaled, do leave a few treasured odds and ends to the students of the Waynesville Township High School. Many of our prized possessions are a little worn, but since we are leaving, we feel free to bequeath anything.

Item I. To the esteemed and worthy faculty we leave our admiration and gratitude for being our guiding beacons through work and play, for offering us mirth through our laughter, and for giving consolation through our tears. Your inspiration has helped the weak to grow stronger and the strong to grow greater.

Item II. To the jolly juniors we leave the privileges which belong only to the seniors. We sincerely hope that you won't take advantage of them.

Item III. To the happy-go-lucky sophomores we leave you two more great years at W. T. H. S.

Item IV. To the freshmen we leave a clean slate. Be careful what you carve upon it, have fun, and make every minute count.

Item V. To the underclassmen we leave the joy and work that high school brings. You are lucky; because it is before you.

Item VI. To Mr. Haney we leave you more customers than you had when we began.

We, Carolyn Palmer, Sue Oliver, and Lavada Riggins, leave our quiet, reserved attitude and efficiency to some rowdy underclassmen.

I, Joyce Carter, leave my off-key ability on the flute to Aileen Williams; even though she doesn't need it.

We, Helen McLean and Wayne Willett, leave our romance to "Rose Bud" and "Dynamite."

I, Don Matney, leave my "Hillbilly Don" act to anybody who can be corny enough to get away with it.

We, Bob Setzer, Alden McCracken, Joe Hipps, and "Hardy" Metcalf, leave our microphones, guitars, and a chorus of "Movin' On" to some quartet that wants a WCKY program during fourth period.

I, Betty Setzer, leave my love for square dancing to Peggy Moody.

We, Jim Cogdill and Buddy Hall, leave our talent for having the "ramblin' blues" every day sixth period to some lucky boys who take bookkeeping.

I, J. D. Stanley, leave my mathematical wizardries to Jeff Reece. Concentration above all!

I, Malcolm Williamson, leave my number 12½'s to my younger brother, Stanley.

We, Bill Burgess and Eugene Underwood, leave our sincere ways to George Dewey Stovall and Aaron Gibson.

I, Anne Bischoff, leave my love for the half-back position on the football team to my sister, Nancy.

We, Harold Bryson and Richard Helmick, leave our "my pal" friendship to Teddy Owen and Hugh Frazier.

I, Mary Francis Ray, leave 16,498,657 lines of memorized poetry to any ambitious student.

We, Dorothy Francis and Velda Arrington, leave our attractive shyness to those two girls behind the door.

I, Bill Arrington, leave my slick ways to Charles Leatherwood.

We, Phil Sutton and Pat McElroy, leave our ability to skip a grade to any other fortunate person.

I, Claude Green, leave my neat way of leaving at the end of fifth period to Kenneth Keenum.

I, Mark Hoglen, leave my powerful baritone voice to Buddy Gibson.

We, the members of the 1951 annual staff, leave our ability to meet a couple of classes during the year to the 1952 staff.

We, Bill Gilliland and Kenneth Smathers, leave our "rowdy" ways to Jimmy Duckett and Harry Kerly.

I, Betty Franklin, leave my gorgeous red hair to Ruth Nichols.

I, Ralph Jenkins, leave Lawrence to carry the Jenkins name in W. T. H. S. basketball.

I, Nancy Leatherwood, leave my wisecracking to Helen Garrett. Think up some new ones, Helen.

I, Pete Dock, the class grumbler, leave that ability to Billy Whitner.

I, Lillian Medford, leave my neatness and snazzy clothes to Mary Crouser.

I, Jerome Boyd, leave my arguing ways to Ray Buchanan.

I, Louise Leach, leave my Scarlett O'Hara trait of waiting until tomorrow to worry about things to Billie Kitchen.

I Perry Morrow, leave my equestrian talents to some other "Straight Arrow".

I, Joyce Erady, leave my engagement to a swell guy to some up-coming senior - - not mentioning any name.

I, Stanley Underwood, leave what I should have learned.

I, Pat Harris, leave my attractive accent to Sylvia Camlin, with suggestion for a few changes.

I, James Moss, leave my ability to sling the pigskin to J. C. Deweese.

We, Dot Caldwell and Rosa Lee Burgess, leave our cooperative ways and ability to study hard to any worthy junior girls.

I, Ernest Rose, leave my cute smile to Doyle Muse.

I, Betty Farmer, leave my presidency of the senior class to any other girl with the ability to fill the office.

We, Blayne and Wayne Carswell, leave our cute twin ways to any other senior twins in years to come.

We, Marjorie Cogdill and Hazel Farmer, leave our basketball ability to Nancy Leopard and Mary Sue Sparks.

I, George Maney, leave my "love" to be out of school to anybody who can get out.

We, Betty Noland and Marietta Dilliard, leave our winning ways and outstanding personalities to Bennie Lou Medford and Carolyn Sayer.

I, Robert Massie, leave my yearning for and fear of Linda Sloan to Stanford Massie, my beloved cousin.

I, Mary Jane Rogers, leave those wonderful solos to Sara Jane Garrison.

I, James "Perk" Fugate, leave my way with women to "Scratch" Inman.

I, Thelma Queen, leave my pretty brown eyes to Nancy Francis.

I, Wade Francis, leave the shade of the oak tree to David Noland.

We, Lucille McGaha, and Margaret Vickery, leave our ability to look cute in a basketball suit to Sara Davis and Collie Jean Reese.

I, Merideth Henson, leave my red hair to "Bony" Davis.

I, Joan Ratcliffe, leave my neat hair-dos to Sally Stovall.

I, Eugene Moody, leave my "hot" baritone to some deserving band student.

I, Barbara Chase, leave my secret romances to Claudine Ferguson.

I, Edwin Ratcliff, leave the wings on my truck to somebody who knows a patrolman.

I, Linton Palmer, leave my position as president of the Student Council to Danny McClure.

I, Fred Dicus, just want to leave.

I, Robert Luther, leave my 4-day weekends to J. R. Medford. It starts on Thursday at two.

I, Jerry Evans, leave my ability of the "know-how" to keep several woman dangling on a string to Gerald Ross.

I, J. D. "Stack" Cable, leave my '67" to Dibe Earley. You need it, Dibe.

I, Charlton Davis, leave my studious ways to Terry Swanger.

I, Allen Boone, leave my ability to fly-low to Dale Medford.

We, Brown Ross and Elmer Sisk, leave our quiet classroom ways to the teachers.

We, Ollie Jenkins and Lois Davis, leave lots of luck to our friend in the underclasses.

I, Bobby Robinson, leave a big "rah-rah" at every game to Charles Alley. A sore throat is in the deal, also.

We, "Kurt" Kuykendall, Tommy Boyd, and Boyce "Rock" Powers, leave our aches, pains, and gripes (plus the ability to always pester somebody) to Carroll Swanger, Bobby Kuykendall, and Reeves Carver.

I, Jimmie Swift, leave Ninky Prevost: and how I hate to!

We, Ann Rector and Margaret Reese, leave a tiny part of our great love for Myrtle Beach to anybody who can manage a trip there in June.

We, Kenneth Styles and Eugene Moody, leave our most unpleasant nick-names to Malcolm Clark.

I, Elizabeth Jenkins, leave my shorthand book to some stenographical-minded junior.

We, Josephine Gaddy, Mouriene Carver, and Braxton Crocker, leave our ability to make quick change in the lunch room to Nancy Kerley, Mary Davis, and Juanita Kelley.

I, Harold Metcalf, leave my share of the "Mud Hole" to Phil Lowe, but the girl doesn't go with it.

We, Mary Evelyn Plemmons and Juanita Wright, leave our pretty hair to Shirley Mae Connatser and Joan Rowe, respectively.

We, Nancy Boyd and Eva Hightower, leave our cute clothes to Patsy Ezell and Clara Sue Schuler.

I, Jimmy Farmer, leave my "wandering" ability to Robert Browning. He's already good at it.

We, Coleman Moody, David Howell, and Ray McLean, leave our talent for being seen and not heard (most of the time) to three quiet freshmen.

I, Duane Oliver, leave my artistic maneuvers to Julia Ann Calhoun. May she be another Rembrandt.

We, Ruth Bradley and Rosemary Caldwell, leave our back seats in typing to Barbara Teague and Sarah Brown. It's really nice back there.

I, Bill Sutton, leave my ramblin', gamblin', smokin' ways to any football star, who can get by with it.

We, Martha Mae Noland and Mary Chace Hall, leave our life-long friendship to Pat Brendle and Pat Blalock. Take good care of it girls, and no fusses about men.

We, Donald Plemmons and Billy Mehaffey, leave our dry, classroom humor to Billy Wayne McCracken and Joe Noland.

I, Ruby Caldwell, leave my office job to Sara Jane Garrison. It's really lots of fun.

I, Joe Howell, leave my love for bright lights and blonde-haired women to Jimmy Davis.

I, Mark Rogers, leave my four years of fun, frolic, and merry-making to Raymond Inman.

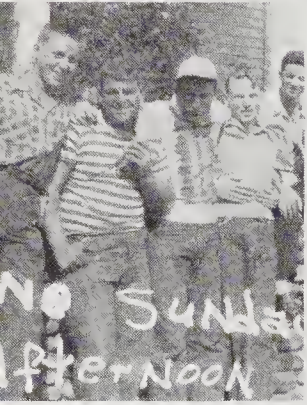

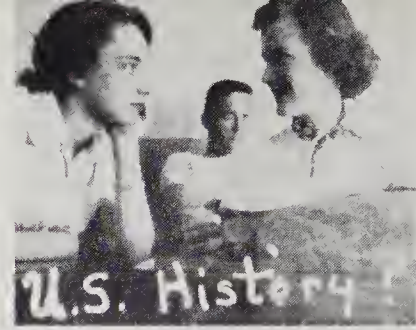

I, Johnny Green, leave my vacant chair in chorus to Richard Hipps.

I, Arlen Duckett, leave my curly hair to Carmen Green.

I, Henry Nichols, leave a "poke" of chewing gum for David Jaynes to give to the girls every day.

Class Prophecy

Well, the year 1961 rolled around and we still hadn't a class reunion. Since we weren't getting any younger, we decided to have it immediately. I offered as my part the dining room of my beautiful summer resort in the heart of the Smokies. Here we would gather and think of the good ole' days of '51. The day came, and soon most of our old classmates were seated and chattering like so many monkeys.

I never thought it was possible, but there were some faces for which I could not get names. Looking around, I saw Betty Setzer with the same puzzling look on her face. "Ah," I said, "Maybe if we get together we can recall all our buddies and talk over the good ole' days."

So I went over to Betty and started a conversation with her. It went something like this. "Pardon me for being so forgetful, but are those people at the next table classmates of ours?"

"Oh, don't you remember President Linton Palmer and his secretary-wife, Betty Noland? Talking with them are - - sure you remember - - Mary Jane Rogers and Nancy Leatherwood. Jane is now an opera singer. Nancy is married, with a set of twins, just like Robert.

"There are Nancy Boyd and Elizabeth Jenkins, head to head as always. The girls are very efficient secretaries for Louis Leach, who owns the Lady Louise Cosmetics. Visiting with Louise is Pat Harris. She owns a plantation in Guatamala."

"But tell me," she whispered, "who are those people just coming in?"

"Don't you remember Malcolm Williamson? Malcolm finally changed to the Democratic Party, and now is our Secretary of State. That is General Pete Dock and Mayor Jimmie Swift with him. Pete is Linton's Chief of Staff. Jimmie recently was elected mayor of Waynesville. The girls are Joyce "Snooper" Carter and Mary Chace Hall. Joyce is gossip editor of the Los Angeles Times. Mary Chace is engaged to a handsome producer of M-G-M, her third. Now it is your turn. Who are they?"

"They, you imbecile, are our nurses, Betty Farmer and Lucille McGaha, trying to stir up a romance for

Dot Francis and Martha Mae Noland, Dot with an intern and Martha with a millionaire she has been nursing.

(Oh no, you don't! Sit back down; we're not through yet.)

"Look! There is Edwin Ratcliffe with his squad of secret service men, J. D. Cable, Ralph Jenkins, Arlen Duckett and Meredith Henson. They are talking to Sheriff Kenneth Smathers and Tommy Boyd, our local horse doctor.

"Speaking of doctors," I said, "There is Mark Rogers, famous brain surgeon, talking to Robert Massie. Robert owns three theaters and five furniture stores, and he is still going strong.

"Man, look at those girls swoon over Harold Bryson, the 'John Barrymore' of today, and singer Johnny Green. Johnny is featured at Harold Metcalfe's Stork Club, according to Alden McCracken, manager. By the way, there is the Stork Club's bouncer, Henry Nichols. Feeling his muscles is Mary Evelyn Plemmons. Wonder who she finally married, Alden or Bill?"

"Ahh, yes," Betty said, "I remember those girls, Braxton Crocker and Mouriene Carver. Braxton is a librarian in Washington, and Mouriene is head of the Home Demonstration Clubs in Haywood County."

"Those two distinguished gentlemen with the bay windows are Joe Howel and Kenneth Styles, automobile executives. Recently they manufactured a new make of car, according to Buddy Hall and Richard Helmick, managers of their plants."

"Just coming in (grouped together as always) are Bob Setzer, now star of the Chicago Bears and Bill Sutton of the San Francisco '49ers. Both made All-American in college football. 'Krut' Kuykendall is shaping up like another Walter Johnson, but 'Perk' Fugate is giving him a close race. Joe Hipps, Coach of Duke, and James Moss of UNC are arguing over their 0-0 tie."

"No, it couldn't be," Betty said, "and yet it is Viola Mae Taylor with that dazzling smile. (That's the way she got John). Talking with her is 'Rah-Rah' Robinson and 'Rock' Powers, who is scoutmaster of the Hazelwood scout troop No. 5."

"That boy waving at us," I told Betty, "is Bill Burgess, winner of the Pulitzer Prize for the best novel of the year. Talking with him are Duane Oliver, an artist, Donald Plemmons and Jim Cogdill, famous comedians, and Ted Noland, who is manager of Ernest Rose Enterprises."

"Juanita Wright and Lavada Riggins have arrived from China, where they have been carrying on their Missionary work for sometime. In China they met Wayne and Blayne Carswell, noted explorers for the Smithsonian Institution."

"Look!" said Betty, "there's Don Matney, owner of CBS. With him are the almost inseparable friends, Ann Rector, star of television, and Margaret Reese, who is in the movies. Talking with them is Lillian Knox Medford, neat and poised as always. She is modeling for Mademoiselle."

"Phil Sutton is a lawyer in town; with him are his two secretaries, Josephine Gaddy and Sue Oliver. Lending an ear to their gossip and adding a little of their own are Jerome Boyd, Allen Boone, Patricia McElroy, and Rosa Lee Burgess."

"Who's that?" I asked.

Betty's reply was, "Oh, you know her. That's Mary Frances Ray. She was so crazy about the blanket mill in Swannanoah that she finally bought it from Brown Ross."

"There are my two good friends, Jay Dee Stanley and Fred Dicus. Both of them are in the Navy. Jay Dee is rounding out his ninth year in the Navy band. Fred is teaching radio in Annapolis. Admiring Jay Dee's and Fred's uniforms is Marjorie Cogdill, who is the new basketball coach at Brevard College. Her assistant, Margaret Vickery, is talking to Josephine McClure, a fashion expert, and Jimmie Farmer, a dude rancher."

"Speaking of farmers", Betty said, "Bill Arrington is manager of the Test Farm, and his assistant is David Howell. Ruth Bradley and Rosemary Caldwell can't help saying Please to them. They're telephone operators, you know."

"Did you say Dunlap?" I asked Betty.

"Sure. There's Carolyn Palmer. With her is Eva Hightower, co-owner of the Barn's Grill in Tennessee. Arguing politics are Perry Morrow, horse trader, Mark Hoglen, owner of the Food Store, and Col. Robert Luther, chief test pilot of the U. S. Air Force."

"Those people hurrying through the door," said Betty, "are teachers of our beloved school, Waynesville High. Hazel Farmer, who is teaching shorthand, Lois Davis, who took Miss Wright's place, Velda Arrington, now teaching English, Ollie Mae Jenkins, who teaches algebra, Barbara Chase, who teaches music in the seventh grade, and Claude Green, who teaches math."

"The new owner of the Underwood Novelty Inc.," I said, "is Stanley Underwood. Talking with him is Thelma Queen, who soon will be taking a cruise on her new yacht, The Ellenburg. Helen McLean and hubby, Wayne Willet, will make the cruise also."

"Well", Betty said, "wouldn't you just know Anne Bischoff would resign as Editor of Life to help Moss?"

"Standing near the window are Billy Mehaffey, Earl Mills, Kenneth Muse, and Ray McLean, who are now serving in the U. S. Army. Talking with them are George Mancy and Ray Mathis, who are putting up a new service station."

"Who's that over there?" asked Betty.

"Oh, that's Jerry Evans, who is a chiropractor following in Dr. Hardys footsteps. Talking with him are Wade Francis, Eugene Underwood, and Bill Gilliland. Wade now owns the Bar PPX Ranch out West. Eugene and Bill are his head foremen."

"What do we have here?" I asked.

Betty replied, "It is Betty Franklin and Marietta Dillard, now keeping house for Luther and Amon Lee. With them is Joyce Frady, writing poetry, some probably inspired by Boyce, Jr."

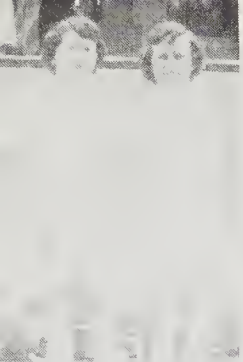

"Seated with Dot Caldwell, who teaches music in Florida, are Joan Ratcliffe, interpreter of Spanish of the United Nations Council, and Ruby Caldwell, secretary to a fruit producer."

"Well, those three boys," I said, "are Coleman Moody, manager of Trailways, Eugene Moody, assistant manager, and Elmer Sisk, Trailway driver."

"Our President, Betty Farmer, looks as if she would like to get our attention so we had better end our conversation."

Student Council Officers

W.T.H.S. has a very alert and efficient Student Council which we may well be proud of. They take an active part in chapel programs and help make school life more pleasant in many other ways.

The officers are: Standing, Linton Palmer, President; Sitting L. to R., Danny McClure, Vice-President; Ann Coman Crawford, Secretary; Mary Crouser, Chief Marshal; Tommy Cogdill, Treasurer.

Student Music Council

The Student Music Council has been functioning capably for the past three years. Under their leadership the music department has advanced to become one of the best known in the state. Mark Rogers is student director and Betty Noland is assistant student director.

Tally-Ho Club

A group of sophomores interested in dramatics and radio organized the Tally-Ho Club in 1948. Since then the Club has grown in membership and has successfully presented plays and radio programs.

F. F. A Officers

F. F. A

This has been a very active group in our school. They won seed identification at Bryson City. They are entering many more contests this year. Mr. John Nesbitt is the advisor.

FHA Officers

FHA Club Members

The Future Homemakers of America is a nation-wide organization in which Waynesville Hi is very active. They take a part in all State and County conventions. What have they done? They have done much to promote interest in the Home Eco. Department.

Local Yokel Staff

The Local Yokel Staff, made up of juniors, is our school publication presenting school life from all angles.

Editor — Aileen Williams has as her assistant Billie Kitchen.

Sub-Deb Club

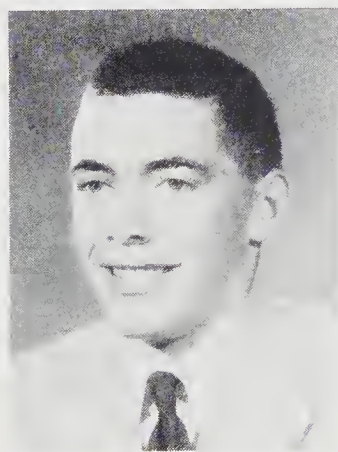

The Sub-Deb Club is an active social club of the tenth grade. Serving as their officers are: Dot Liner, president; Vivian Sayer, vice-president; Patricia Brendle, secretary; and Patsy Blalock, treasurer.

Senior 4-H Club

The club is one of the outstanding clubs in Haywood County. Every other summer they go to Iowa and then the Iowa club comes here the next summer. The members of this club are among the best students at W.T.H.S.

BETTY NOLAND
Business Manager

It all began back in September when we had our staff elections. The outlook was bright and the whole staff was looking forward to the work that lay ahead. Then our materials arrived and we got down to brass tacks—not the whole staff—but a few of us. Linton and his assistants sold more annuals than we had expected them to. Jimmy and his advertisers finally sold enough ads to put us over the top. . . . We are especially grateful to Mrs. Edwards for letting us use the library, her stamp pad, and her patience; to Coach Weatherby for his words of advice, it surely won't be forgotten, but neither will he; to Coach Ratcliffe and Miss Jackson for their ideas and advice; to the American Yearbook Company for their patience; and to Mr. Ingram for his patience and all those rush jobs we asked for. . . . To these people we will just say thanks, but don't think that we don't appreciate every little thing that they did for us. Also we want to thank the paper staff for their paper, they didn't know we borrowed it, but thanks anyway. . . . This is how this book was assembled, so handle it with care and always keep it, for it is a wonderful possession.

An annual is a great invention
The school gets all the fame
The printers get all the money
And the staff gets all the blame.

The Record of the Class of '51

Since our class has contributed so many interesting and profitable things to the high school, it is only proper that we recall a few of our most famous episodes. For instance, do you remember —

- When Don Matney played “The Thing” for the day’s hymn?
 - When someone poured red ink in Mrs. Burgess’ aquarium?
 - When Margaret Reese and Ann Rector baked the candy to make it get hard?
 - The Dillinger gang?
 - The time Pete Dock got thrown in the creek?
 - When Dot Caldwell croak-croaked?
 - The time Malcolm served wine at school in his Daddy’s communion glasses?
 - When Mary Chase and Mert went frog gigging?
 - When “Ape” Setzer, Jerry Evans, “Perk” Fugate, and “Dude” Hipps had their “ups and downs” (as elevator boys) — hear Hazel, Pat McElroy, Marietta, Braxton, Josephine McClure and Betty Farmer had some elevator thrills, too!
 - The time Allen lost his school bus?
 - When Lillian Knox hit Littleton Road? (the sign, that is).
 - Joe Howell’s Arabian cow?
 - How Viola Mae’s boy friends were always having car trouble?
 - Krut’s ailments? All 9,999 of them?
 - The WCKY programs?
 - How we always had spaghetti on rainy days and when they mowed the lawn we always had spinach?
 - The time Bill Sutton was playing cowboy and shot Coach Weatherby?
 - The night Joan Ratcliffe slept in two chairs at Greensboro?
 - That day the annual staff went to Asheville to sell ads?
 - Hardy’s history speech? It gave everybody a charge, especially Miss Wright.
 - The time Joyce Carter saw “High Pockets” coming and yelled?
 - Mary Jane’s sock?
 - The night Linton learned how to back up when he followed some girls to the scout hut?
 - When Mrs. Patrick wouldn’t let the biology class eat dinner and they ate the tadpoles and fish from the aquarium?
 - That time Nancy Leatherwood thought the spike was coked?
 - The day that Bobby Robinson got to school on time?
 - Senior English class?
 - When Betty Noland put two teaspoons of salt in the biscuits?
 - When Jerome ran out of gas when his woman’s other man was chasing him?
 - That Junior picnic? “Stack” thought he was a trapeze artist with that jeep! Hear Wade liked his own chicken on that picnic, too!
 - The great fire of '51?
 - When Joe Hipps yelled at Mr. Haney’s mule and it stopped?
 - Someone threw a chair out of the biology room’s window?
 - When Claude Green and Harold Bryson built their own truck?
 - The time Mark pulled a baby slip out of his pocket? He thought it was a handkerchief!
 - When Bruce Lantz answered all the questions on a history test with jokes?
 - That night Anne Bischoff called people on the phone and told them that she was Rudolph the Red-Nose Reindeer?
 - The time Robert Massie drove back from Hendersonville barefooted?
 - When Mr. Bowles hired the professional pianist? (He turned out to be a fake.)
 - The night Jimmie Swift had to have a tractor pull him out of the mud at 12:30 A.M.?
- Yes, these things really happened to us, and a lot more, too! But this gives you a general idea of the incidents the Class of '51 has contributed to the records of Waynesville Hi, so we will leave you here to think over and laugh over these memories. (Any resemblance to any people in the Class of '51 is purely intentional.)
